3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Delivery will not be made of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

Delivery will not be made of any purchase at any time other than between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association, will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

VERY SCARCE, with the half-title and map. The authorship of this work is attributed to Major Hall, of General Howe's army, and appears to have been written entirely as a vindication of the methods of procedure of the mother country. Notwithstanding that this Volume I. of the History is printed "Second Edition" on title-page, the work was never completed beyond this volume, which is all ever issued.

London, 1785-1786

Fine set of a work, which has the reputation of being the fullest and most impartial of the histories of the American Revolution published at this period. The set is doubly interesting in view of the fact that it is contemporaneously extra-illustrated with 12 choice old portraits and views, all fine impressions.

The plates which belong in the book include Generals Washington, Greene, Howe, Cornwallis, Burgoyne, Elliott, Clinton, Doctor Franklin, King Geo. III, Lord Howe, Marquis De Lafayette, Count D'Estaing, Lord Keppel, Admiral Parker, Lord Hood, Admiral Hughes, Lord Rodney, and several others, besides five engraved maps. The extra plates are all of the same period, 1785-7, and are as follows: Britannia Attended by Fortitude (an allegorical plate, with Wisdom and Liberty receiving from Neptune a Marine Crown, and Fame flying from Dover Castle holding a Medallion of King Geo. III. Portraits of William Pitt, Charles James Fox, Dr. Johnson, George Frederick Handel, Louis XVI, Count de Vergennes (the two previously noted being mezzotints), Johan Arnold Zoutman, Wolter Jan Gerrit, Hon. Augustus Keppel, Admiral of the Blue, Sir Walter Raleigh, a spirited view of the Defeat of the Spanish Armada near Plymouth, a view of the ship of war Great Harry, a view of the taking of the Froudroyant, the largest ship in the French Navy by the Monmouth, a view of a First Rate Ship of War, with separate sheet giving the names of every rope, sail, spar, etc., view of Gen. Considered to be the best and most authentic history of the American Revolution written in French. The author had access to original documents, and Rochambeau and the French Minister of War read and revised the Manuscript, Rochambeau incorporating much of it in the Memoirs he published later.

The work is scarce, especially in the condition of this copy.

A collection of scarce Loyalist poems printed chiefly from original manuscripts, written by Americans in name, but sympathizers with the cause of the Crown. As political poems they are vigorous and entertaining and as they were written in the days when a spade was called a spade, they may reasonably be expected to contain more than one "strong, old-fashioned English word familiar to all who read their Bibles."

Montpelier, Vt.: Published by Wright and Sibley, 1812

ONE OF THE RAREST BOOKS UPON THE AMERICAN INDIANS AND EXTREMELY DESIRABLE. The original issue was practically destroyed, and the work remained unheard of until its re-discovery by Mr. Field, from whose long and interesting catalogue-notice of the above, we quote as follows:—"Published anonymously, without preface, it was known to but few that the author was the Rev. Daniel Clark(e) Sanders, President of the University of Vermont. Immediately after its appearance some person . . . published an acrimonious critique upon the book . . . Such was the effect of the article upon Mr. Sanders that the work was suppressed . . . So nearly complete was the destruction of the volume, that it was forgotten by those who professed to know most of its author, his biographers, and neither Thompson, Williams or Hemenway mention Sanders' authorship of the Indian Wars." PERFECT COPIES SUCH AS THE ABOVE ARE OF EXCEPTIONAL RARITY.

330. [REVERE (PAUL).] Weatherwise's Town and Country Almanac, 1781. Title-page and page containing the portrait of George Washington, said to be engraved by Paul Revere. Framed and glazed.
Boston; Printed and sold by John McDougall & Co. 1781
In The Engraved Portraits of Washington, by Charles Henry Hart, Grolier Club, New York, 1904, the following account is given of this portrait and it is there reproduced at p. XV.
"In Goss's Life of Paul Revere, p. 501, is printed a letter from Revere to his cousin, Mathias Rivoire, in France, in which Revere says:
"Before this reaches you you will have heard of the victory gained over the British Army, by the Allied Armies, commanded by the brave General Washington. A small engraving of his I send enclosed, it is said to be a good likeness and is my engraving."
"It so happens that in the very same year that Revere sent the 'small engraving' to his cousin there was published in Boston, by John McDougall & Co., 'Weatherwise's Town and Country Almanack,' on page 7 of which appears the type-metal portrait of Washington. It is after Peale's portrait and may have been copied from Norman's sheet Almanac for 1780 which it closely follows. I think, therefore, this type-metal portrait of Washington may be accepted as the Revere 'small engraving,' until the ascription is disproved by the production of a copper-plate print bearing his name as engraver."
